

Father Colin Levangie, with head band, was again the rider gaining most pledges in the annual Lions Bike-a-thon, but this year he tripled last year's earnings with a total of $914 pledged. At right is Lions Club President Elmer Harrison, Cindy Smith, who also did the full 25 miles, and Co-Chairman John Kaminski and Al Race are on hand to wish the riders good luck as they leave. Total pledges were about $2,500, up several hundred over last year. Pledges may be paid at the Bank of Nova Scotia or the St. Albert Credit Union.

Vandalism costs District 6 $11,000

The St. Albert Protestant Separate School Board District No. 6 is becoming more concerned as vandalism increases in the schools within the district. The Board plans to issue letter cards to parents which give advice on reporting vandalism, similar to those issued by the Edmonton Public School Board.

District No. 6 in St. Albert lost in excess of $11,000 due to vandalism during the last year. Weekend security patrols cost $5,000 and more than $4,000 was spent on glass breakage. Repair of defaced walls, damage and theft caused by break-ins cost another $2,000. As a result of excessive glass breakage and other damage to school property, the insurance company has increased premium rates and the deductible amount has been doubled. The district office itself has recently been subjected to two break-ins.

Vandalism is by no means a local problem and concerned groups throughout the western world continue to be frustrated by it. A British study concludes that the answer to vandalism exists lies partly in the character of the times, a period of great social upheaval, and partly in the nature of the vandal who is as difficult to define as he is to catch.

The values associated with juvenile vandalism and thought to be peculiar to delinquents such as the search for excitement and kicks, admiration for toughness and aggression, might also reflect the values running through the whole society. The media play endlessly on themes of violence and aggression that they become, to the young at least, an acceptable part of life. Most vandalism is caused by boys between the ages of nine and 21. While some vandal attacks can be attributed to "daring" and "action," others are committed by vandals with no thought of their actions or by emotionally disturbed young people.

An American report observes that vandalism is one index of social stresses and that vandalism tends to concentrate in areas where tensions are greatest among adults, regardless of ethnic or social background. The incidence is higher in poor areas where educational services are generally below an acceptable standard but it is not always the have-nots, the oppressed, the dispossessed who strike out at schools. The roots of vandalism lie in sources other than the schools; deficiencies in the home or community, rebellion against society, resentment of authority, social or emotional maladjustment or simply the thoughtlessness of youth.

Closer to home, the City of Calgary Public School system have seen the costs of vandalism more than double from $57,000 in 1968 to $152,000 in 1971. The types of vandalism are classified into five major categories: fire, glass breakage to windows, breaking and entering, furniture damage and defacing buildings. Measures to reduce vandalism have been studied and two main approaches have emerged. The "cure" approach advocates greater use of school facilities during the evenings and to deter would-be vandals and an incentive plan to reward students with extra facilities to the value of the decrease in costs of vandalism. This approach has not yet proven to be very successful.

The "prevention" approach concentrates on the increased protection of buildings, e.g. extra patrolling and fire protection devices and screened or strengthened windows. This system also has its disadvantages. Replacement of reinforced windows, for instance, is much costlier when they are broken than the replacement of normal windows.

The City of Edmonton Public School Board is studying the problem. Please turn to page 2.

Council approves rules - Tax instalment payment

In the question period preceding the May 13 Committee meeting of Town Council, Mr. Dick Plain asked if in future council would give clear indication to prospective homeowners on the location and nature of boundary roads. Home-buyers are confused, he said on whether the property they are buying is designated a truck route and new people should be informed before they purchase, in full understanding of the future situation. Chairman Hudson noted that council has little control over real estate agents, but as regards to town maps and public hearings such designation can be made.

A four-part recommendation on payment of taxes by instalment, from the administration committee was approved unanimously. Taxes may be paid over a period of six months or less. Default on the due date of any instalment results in the remaining instalments becoming due and payable. A penalty of eight per cent on the unpaid taxes will be levied on the first day of default or July 1st, whichever is the latest. Supplementary taxes (on residences completed part way through the year) may be paid over a period of four monthly instalments or less, with all remaining instalments becoming due and payable on default of any one instalment, and a penalty of eight per cent if default occurs in year in which taxes were levied or 10 per cent if default occurs in succeeding year.

Administration Committee recommendation to hire the firm of Campbell, Sharp, Nash and Field as auditors for the town for an annual fee of $4,000 carried unanimously. The committee agreed that the firefighting agreement with the MD of Sturgeon should be reviewed in the light of changing capabilities and increasing costs. The recommendation was to terminate the agreement, which is dated June 16, 1967. The old agreement must be terminated prior to notice of intent to negotiate a new agreement.

Coun. Lukay stated that when he met with MD Sturgeon the firefighting agreement was brought up, and the MD was expecting an increase in rates by St. Albert, and had indicated they were willing. Why terminate the agreement? he asked.

"We can't continue the way we are," said Coun. Bakker - we can't afford it, and moved the recommendation to write the MD and terminate. Coun. Hudson felt the wording suggested was too harsh, and hoped the intent of the letter proposed was not to indicate such harshness. Motion carried 4-1, with Coun. Lukay opposed. (Mayor Gibbon was out. Please turn to page 2.)

Swim Registration cancelled

All the swimming instruction classes except for adults were filled last night and tonight's registration has therefore been cancelled. Adults lessons will be held from June 4 to 27 on Tuesday and Thursday between 9 and 10 p.m. Adults wishing to register can do so with the Recreation Department at Town Hall.

A rough estimate of 400 registrations were taken for children's classes Tuesday evening and this year the pressure was on the junior and senior level, whereas previously there were a lot of pre-beginners and beginners.

Further classes for children will be held in July and August.

Lambert - Elzinga PC Candidates

Peter Elzinga won the nomination for the Progressive Conservative candidate for Pembina riding on the first ballot at the convention held last night in Westlock, defeating the sitting member Dan Hollands by 419 to 304 votes. Al Squair was far behind with 65 votes.

Marcel Lambert won the Edmonton West nomination the same evening by acclamation.

costs $11,000

The School Board, who spent $300,000 on school repairs because of vandalism during the last budget year, recently issued letter cards to students advising of preventive measures which can be taken by the public to assist combatting vandalism. Consideration has also been given to making parents of vandals liable for the cost of repairs.

of town). Recommendation to raise the fee paid to a volunteer fireman from $2.25 to $5.00 for attendance at a training session; That for weekend on-call duty a volunteer be paid $6 for 24 hours on call, $16 for 48 continuous hours on call and $30 for 72 hours on call, was approved. Mr. Colin Ford was appointed to the Hospital Board, filling a vacancy left by Angela Sonntag until the October elections. The meeting passed motions to prepare a letter requesting a green belt for St. Albert, and to hold a plebiscite on the subject of industrial development, as requested at the town public meeting held April 29.

Miss Kostinuk is a member of IPSE (the Individual Psychology Society of Edmonton) which is a group of counsellors, teachers, social workers and parents who are trying to improve family and classroom relations. Their approach uses the application of a few practical, realistic and uncomplicated principles discovered by Alfred Adler and placed in his "Individual Psychology" system. Members of IPSE have been holding parent study groups and family counselling sessions in Edmonton this past winter. Miss Kostinuk has been involved in these learning sessions.

The program part of the meeting will involve a talk by Miss Kostinuk then a discussion as to how to apply these principles to real life situations. The Adlerian approach is to solve one problem at a time within the framework laid down by the Individual Psychology system. The meeting will be of particular interest to parents who would like to learn more about effective ways of living with children. A parent's study group in Adlerian methods may be given in St. Albert in the fall if sufficient interest is shown.

The estimated total cost of the aforesaid project amounts to $322,000.00. Mrs. Cathy Noack of 28 Birch Drive, St. Albert, hasn't had any formal medical training but nonetheless was able to perform a delicate operation on the Schubert Cherry Tree in her front yard. Apparently the little tree was damaged when snow on the roof was shovelled down on to it, almost snapping off the limb. Mrs. Noack employed tongue depressors and surgical tape to secure the limb and is pleased to report that the tree is now doing fine. The damaged branch is full of life and buds are visible. Mrs. Noack confesses performing a similar operation on one of her house plants when it was damaged. Efforts at that time were successful also.

Kinsmen elect new officers with the club Mr. Moore has coached in minor hockey and played with the Kinsmen Warlords hockey team.

Trustees want involvement in planning developments

School boards are concerned that they have been ignored by the government in its proposal for a new planning act.

An exhaustive study of the proposed new act has been undertaken by the Alberta School Trustees Association and a recommendation that provides for school board input to all planning activities coming under the proposed act has been presented the government. Copies have gone to all members of the legislature.

The ASTA has studied the government legislation clause by clause and made the necessary notations to facilitate obligations of school authorities where required.

Major ASTA recommendations call for trustee membership on all metropolitan, area, municipal, and regional planning boards; insistence that school authorities be involved in every planning venture that will call for educational services; requirement that new subdivisions provide necessary land reserve for school purposes on the same basis as any other public service reservation; and that developers pay for the cost of services to the school reserve land up to the property line.

The Editor:

I am writing in regard to a problem that plagues all the residents in my neighborhood. The problem is dogs and their inconsiderate owners. I am an animal lover but I object very strongly to people taking their dogs for walks and allowing the dogs to use my lawn as a bathroom. Phoning the Dog Patrol is useless because she does nothing. My only hope is that the situation is rectified in some way before my lawn dies.

Health break- through?

A major breakthrough in health care could be just around the corner as hospitals, medical practitioners and scientists weigh the evidence and the potential of healing power in life energies, according to the May issue of IMPETUS, the magazine of The Financial Post. Although these energy flows are as yet unexplained, there appears to be conclusive evidence that they do flow from certain people, says IMPETUS.

For instance, using meticulous scientific procedures it has been shown that the laying on of hands by a healer can a) slow down goitre development in mice, b) accelerate wound healing in mice, and c) "heal" beakers of saline solution so that seeds watered with it grow faster than seeds watered with the same "unhealed" solution.

That we don't happen to understand these energy flows should not prevent us from using them, says a Toronto sociology professor: "We have found plenty of uses for electricity although we still don't understand its essence." What's more, he points out, official recognition for healing practitioners could result in enormous health care cost-savings. Some 1,500 British hospitals, according to IMPETUS, use the services of such healers on a regular professional basis.

Vince Maloney will retire after 20 years with Board

Mr. Vince Maloney, who is completing his 20th year with the St. Albert School District #3, announced his retirement at the St. Albert High graduation exercises held Friday evening. Mr. Maloney has been superintendent of the district for the last 11 years. His retirement will be effective on August 31 of this year.

Mr. Maloney came to St. Albert from Ponoka in the fall of 1954, as principal of St. Albert school, covering grades one to twelve. After four years he became supervising principal for all grades in the school district, a post he held for five years under superintendent Wm. Soprovich. He served 10 years as superintendent of the rapidly growing school district before the post of assistant superintendent was created and George Soetaert was appointed on March 1, 1973. The system grew from the Mission Park School and the old brick school on the hill to include Father Jan School, (first a high and then a junior-high), St. Albert High, Vital Grandin and Albert Lacombe schools.

Recognition of the uniqueness of each child was named by Mr. Maloney as perhaps the most rewarding area of personal interest, and an educational ideal for which he worked throughout his career. During his term as superintendent he saw the opening of special classrooms for children with difficulties, opportunity rooms, transition rooms and the bringing in of resource teachers, including special reading teachers. In this connection the hiring of student counsellors, the first of whom came into the district about 10 years ago, was another step forward, said Mr. Maloney.

Establishing central libraries in each school and the District Instructional Materials Centre established about six years ago in Vital Grandin School were further goals reached which have given great satisfaction.

Through the years the pupil retention rate has climbed, another development which has pleased the superintendent - it is now almost 100 per cent, he said. When he first came the graduating class numbered 11 or 12, and this year is well over 100.

The staff has grown as well. When Mr. Maloney first came it was at 22, growing to 41 when he was appointed superintendent and now the district has 117 on staff. And when all is said and done, he said, it is really people who count. Through 20 years I have really appreciated working with both the trustees and staff in the district, for their efforts and their co-operation.

Mr. Maloney was twice elected to Town Council, in 1959 and 1962. He has served as secretary of the Provincial Urban School Superintendent's Association and last year was president of the zone superintendent's association.

On the leisure side he enjoys golf, bridge, hunting and camping and trailering. Vince and his wife Jeanne have eight children: Mari-ahne (Ford) who was a teacher and now lives at Rocky Mountain House; Kathleen, (Burns) a registered nurse who is living in Montreal with her college professor husband; Rita (Wold) who was a teacher and is married to an instructor at Red Deer College; Jim who graduates with a B.Ed. degree this year, Jeanette who will soon graduate with a B.A. degree, Lorraine, Miles and Carolyn at home. Raising a family is fairly expensive in terms of dollars, said Mr. Maloney, but there is nothing like the joy and fun they have provided us.

Asked about future plans Mr. Maloney said he was really quitting to gain freedom. Freedom to travel and to indulge in hobbies. The Maloneys will continue to make their home in St. Albert, where Vince has a business interest, and later on he feels he may do a little work at something else.

"Right now I am looking forward with much anticipation to being a bit of a hobo," he concluded.

Mr. Vince Maloney will be leaving his desk at the administration building of St. Albert Catholic School District on July 31, when he will have a month's holiday prior to his retirement as school superintendent after 20 years with District #3.

AROUND TOWN

Larry Mitchell, sports-writer at the Gazette and ball player of some renown, ended up in Sturgeon General Hospital Monday afternoon with fractured leg and ankle bones. Playing in the Sturgeon Fastball League weekend tournament at Calahoo, Larry hit a home run, and seeing a throw coming in, slid for home plate. Unfortunately the plate was raised slightly and he had already started his slide before he noticed it. His new cleats caught the base edge, Larry went forward but the leg didn't. An operation to repair the extensive damage was done Monday evening. On top of a very painful session for Larry, both the Calahoo fastball club and the Saints baseball club will be minus a valuable player for the 1974 season. (Maybe longer, says wife Lorraine).

The council will be having a small Summer Safety Display in the community booth on the Grandin Shoppers Mall Friday through Saturday, June 7 and 8.

Mr. Vern Tompkins was the winner of the lovely Crewe picture recently raffled by the Sturgeon General Hospital Auxiliary.

Andre Gate, former parks and recreation superintendent for the town was in town Tuesday, after attending to some business at the university. He attended the meeting of the St. Albert Lions Club, of which he is a former member and paid a brief visit to his former co-worker, Rene Laird. He is now in Moose Jaw and missed any flood damage at his home by about one foot. Total flood damage is about 10 million dollars he said and federal, provincial and city funds will be made available to people to relocate. There was a previous flood in 1968 in the same area and the city is hoping to have a golf course in the area if the relocation can be carried out successfully.

Spring arrived at the St. Albert Community Hall on Monday, May 13. Two hundred and twenty ladies attended the U.C.W. sponsored "Spring and Summer Fashion Show." Gwen Bjorgy, fashion co-ordinator for the Bay, Londonderry was the commentator for the evening. Sales personnel from the Bay modelled many lovely outfits with emphasis on sportswear and casual dresses.

Coffee and dessert were served and the organizers are very pleased with the results of the evening.

St. Albert singing groups seek new members

Anyone interested in joining the Balmoral Balladeers should contact Richard Schuchard (459-3655). The Balmoral Balladeers are a family singing group from St. Albert and they placed first in Community Music Group class at the Kiwanis Music Festival. They will be involved in Klondike entertainment, taking shows to hospitals and nursing homes. During last year's Klondike Days about 14 shows were put on by the group.

The Deaspora, a newly organized music group consisting of teen-agers and adults, is also looking for new members. Anyone interested in joining them should call Mr. Schuchard. They will also be involved in Klondike Days activities, accompanying the Balladeers on their Klondike rounds.

PARTY LINE

Trees, shrubs and bedding plants are available at Lions Park from 5 p.m. till 9 p.m. weekdays, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturdays and from one o'clock till five on Sundays. for a while.

Edmonton's own Patti-B Macdonald will be appearing with the Irish Rovers when they perform at the Northern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium on May 22 and 23. Patti-B performed with the 'Rovers on their popular CBC-TV show last year.

The ever-popular Irish Rovers are taking time off from TV taping sessions to return to the prairie provinces for a concert tour which begins May 12 in Brandon, Manitoba, and concludes in Calgary on May 25.

Tickets for both of the Edmonton performances are available from Mike's Ticket office.

FLIKING

Currently showing in Edmonton is a whole slate of hilarious comedies, FLIKING brings you three of the funnest.

THE COMMITTEE

This movie is a collection of clips taken of several short skits performed by a company of seven very professional actors and actresses. Do not expect a typical movie setting, but do expect to be professionally entertained by some of the best comedy ever brought to Edmonton.

THE COMMITTEE is now showing at the Jasper Cinema, 156 Street and Stony Plain Road.

NOT NOW DARLING

A movie that's been around for a long time, but is still packing them in and for very good and funny reasons. The business during a days work at a very reputable furriers turns into a completely out of control situation, when after all it was only one mistress that he had lined up, not the voluptuous model, or the sexy secretary or his own receptionist. What happens next when the wife comes in, along with the husband of the mistress, who is very enchanted with the young secretary, whose boyfriend turns up at just the 'right' time, and just what are they talking about? It gets even more complicated and more and more funny with each scene.

NOT NOW DARLING is now showing at the Klondike Cinema on Whyte Avenue.

BLAZING SADDLES

A most humorous Comedy Western that is sure to keep you laughing. An uproar is created when a negro becomes sheriff of a small town in the wild west, through the 'dirty' dealings of the bad guys, and of course the good guys don't like it. But you will.

BLAZING SADDLES is now showing at Towne Cinema, 118 Avenue and 124 Street.

SPORTS

Golden Jets win home opener

The St. Albert Golden Jets Senior Lacrosse Club found that sometimes it pays to take penalties. The Jets scored six goals while short-handed and went on to outscore the Edmonton Blues 14-12 in the Jets home opener at the St. Albert Arena.

It appeared that the Jets were going to run away with the game as they built up a 6-0 lead by the end of the first period. The 6-0 score was due mainly to some excellent goaltending by Bill Tieland and Larry Davis and strong checking by forwards and defencemen alike.

By the five minute mark of the second period the Blues had cut the once seemingly invincible lead to 6-5 and eventually outscored the Jets 7-3 over the 20 minute middle frame. However, the Blues completed the second period with three men on the penalty box and this proved to be their downfall. By the time all three men were out the Jets had increased their lead to 12-7 and from that point hung on for their 14-12 victory.

Lee Carlyle again led the Jets with his second straight five goal performance. Mel Galloway and Wally Monson scored three and two short-handed goals respectively. Russ McFall, Brian Mason and the Konkolus brothers, Barry and Don, rounded out the St. Albert scoring. Bob Johnson and Guy English were the scoring stars for the Blues with three goals apiece. The Blues outshot the Jets 59-42 over-all.

Sailfish club

'If you want to join a winning swim team, join the St. Albert Sailfish swim team! That is what Mr. John Grave has to say to anyone interested in competitive swimming. He urges that possible team members try to drop down to the pool and meet the new coach.

The first meeting of the swim club was held last night (Tuesday) at 6 p.m. but tryouts are on all week. If you missed the first meeting you haven't missed out on the team. Contact the coach at the pool. The St. Albert pool opened its season this weekend.

Sturdy stance and vigorous action was the scene at the St. Albert Arena Thursday evening. Lacrosse continues to catch on with more players and fans alike in St. Albert.

Girl's Barrel racing adds color to Horse Show

Each night of the Northlands Horse Show from May 21 to May 25, fans will applaud to the color and excitement of the Girls' Barrel Racing.

Women have claimed a full share of the rugged world of big-time rodeo and have done so without any protest marches or court decisions. The struggle to be included in the all-male rodeo competition began in 1948, long before women's lib became a by-word. The weapons that won the fight were crowd-pleasing, color, glamour, and feminine showmanship.

Today, ladies' Barrel Racing has become one of the standard rodeo events and is a thrilling attraction for the spectator as the colorfully-dressed girls race around barrels in a clover-leaf pattern and show precision riding at full speed between themselves and their horses.

Being a standard rodeo event, the girls have formed their own Rodeo Association with a full-time office and secretary-treasurer. They also have their own insurance plan, newsletter and publicity program. They publish a rule book, approve their own rodeos and tabulate the money won, and name an annual world champion.

The Northlands Horse Show is pleased to have entered Elaine Stewart from St. Pierre, Manitoba, the young lady who won the Girls' Barrel Racing at the show last year. Included in the girls entered are Frances Church of Calgary and very popular Jerry Duce who performed trick riding during the Canadian Western Rodeo.

In 1974 the girls are competing for in excess of $500 prize money. Tickets for the Northlands Horse Show are available at $2 for adults and $1 for students and senior citizens. Tickets may be obtained at all Box Office locations, McCauley Plaza, all Woodward's Stores and the Bonnie Doon Mall.

Further Recognition of women urged for Canada's pension plans

A current appraisal and analysis of the position of women in society sparked by the increasing participation of women in the economic work service of the nation is resulting in concern over benefits they would receive from the Canada Pension Plan.

Recognition that certain provisions within the Plan accord different treatment to male and female contributors has resulted in action which is now underway. The government in Ottawa, with full agreement of all the provincial governments, is placing legislation before the 1974 session of Parliament to establish full equality of treatment for male and female contributors and beneficiaries.

Changing attitudes concerning the position of women within the 'most basic unit of Canadian society' — the family, has resulted in the expression of the view that housewives who remain at home and do not draw salaries as legitimate members of the working force should be allowed to participate in the Canada Pension Plan. This very subject was under discussion by federal and provincial Welfare Ministers at a meeting held in Edmonton during February of this year. Recognizing the difficulties associated with the implementation of this objective, Ministers agreed that the various possible approaches should be given serious study.

The Royal Commission on the Status of Women has brought out the central features of the issue, the considerations involved, and the practical range of options for the future. The Commission noted that, with rare exception, women who stay at home depend upon their husbands for money. The fact that a family allowance cheque is received was acknowledged, but it is noted that the money is spent on the cost of 'Keeping a Child' and 'cannot be regarded as payment for its care.' The Commission urged that steps should be taken to 'give them (housewives) some financial independence at least in their later years.' The opinion that a housewife who remains at home is just as much a producer of goods and services as a paid worker and that she should also have the opportunity to provide for a more financially secure future is also brought out in the Commission report.

While the Canada and the Quebec Pension Plans do allow for the provision of the widow of a contributor, the Commission urges that these Plans further pursue the provisions for women,

Elk Island Park road plan

A communique from the Department of Indian and Northern Affairs circulated in mid-April announced that tenders for the rebuilding of the main road into Elk Island National Park will be called this spring.

Specialists from Parks Canada and the Canadian Wildlife Service have been involved in a study and the results have insured that the route and the proposed design will be of minimum effect on this area's environment, according to L. H. Robinson, Western Region director of Parks Canada.

The project has been monitored and approved by both the Edmonton Chapter of the National and Provincial Parks Association and the Canadian Society of Environmental Biologists. Their view on the proposed plan is that it seems to be the most appropriate.

Planned for the construction of this project is a 3.4 mile diversion around Lake Astotin to re-route traffic from the heavily used lakeshore. Also involved in this project is a reconstruction of the existing alignment, more specifically the first 5.6 miles of the southern entrance from Highway 16. Completion of this parkway standardized road is scheduled for the fall of 1975 with it being initiated sometime this year.

Human food from oil

One of the major oil companies will start producing human food from petroleum on a commercial basis late next year. Standard Oil Co. (Indiana), better known by its Amoco brand name, is opening a multimillion-dollar plant which will produce more than 10 million pounds a year of Tortula yeast. The yeast is more than 50 per cent protein and contains valuable vitamins and minerals. It will be grown on food-grade ethyl alcohol made from petroleum, and will meet all U.S. food regulations, Amoco says. Their subsidiary, Amoco Foods Co., will market the yeast to independent food processors.

"Food scientists and nutritionists have been predicting a worldwide protein shortage," says Amoco President Jack Shay, "and there are serious questions whether agricultural production can be increased to meet protein demand. The U.S., for example, has about 26 per cent of all arable acreage in the world, but there's little more suitable farm land available to increase significantly the production of the primary crops." Hence, the oil industry to the rescue.

A year's supply of protein for every man, woman and child in the U.S. could be produced from 1.5 per cent of the petroleum now used in the country, Shay says. The new production process can be installed just about anywhere in the world.

Students must save under new loan plan

Adoption of a savings requirement for post-secondary students qualifying for funds from the province's Students' Finance Act has been announced by Paul Tietzen, chairman of the Students' Finance Board. Under the criteria which were accepted by all provinces under the Canada Students Loan Plan, a student must save an amount equal to 45 per cent of the provincial wage between regular sessions.

It has been estimated that a male university student should save approximately $600, females are expected to save less since they are less likely to obtain a high-paying form of employment. High school students would be expected to save about $300 prior to first year of studies.

The board will require a contribution from the spouse of a married student where it is possible that the spouse is capable of providing a contribution to help offset the expenses of a family.

Under this new policy, a student who is expected to save a certain amount of money and does not do so will have a reduced loan eligibility equal to the amount. The right of appeal is maintained.

A method of encouragement will be provided to those students who save more than the minimum. Excess savings will receive maximum consideration under the remission program whereby the Board repays a portion of the loan for the student after graduation.

Dale Kowalchuk leads police officers Ted Commandeur and Jim MacDonald in an investigation. A scene from 'The Smugglers' which formed part of the second annual Lit Night at Vital Grandin School on May 14. Over 600 people jammed the bleachers to watch the program which culminates the work of students in the drama and music option courses. The action took place on a large stage, the gym floor. Marc Prefontaine, drama and music teacher, and Dan Bouwmeester, music teacher were a big hit with their guitar and vocal presentation of music from the mid-fifties, including Blue Suede Shoes.

you need NEW ERATM
The TOUGH FLOOR from Armstrong

Floors don't lead a soft life—especially if there's an active family around your house. Everyday scratching, scraping, scuffing, and gouging can do in any floor after a while.

That's why Armstrong created New Era... the tough floor. New Era is made of vinyl, like many other floors, but it's manufactured differently to give it extra strength... strength to resist gouges and heavy traffic wear let alone ordinary scrapes and scratches.

But don't take our word for it. Come in today, and we'll show you just how tough (and good looking) New Era really is!

Jean Gascon, one of Canada's foremost men of the theatre, was named this year's recipient of the $50,000 Royal Bank Award on April 23. He is the eighth Canadian to receive this honor.

The Royal Bank Award was created in 1967 to provide recognition for dedicated and distinguished Canadians "whose outstanding achievement is of such importance that it is contributing to human welfare and the common good."

P. D. McTaggart-Cowan, a member of the Award Selection Committee, said, "Jean Gascon's achievement is unique in Canadian theatre. He has made a major contribution in both the English and French languages." Dr. McTaggart-Cowan went on to add that Gascon is equally well known and highly regarded in both English and French Canada.

Presentation of the $50,000 cheque and a specially struck gold medal will be made at a formal dinner in Stratford on May 21.

Mr. Gascon, 54, has been artistic director of the Stratford Festival for seven years. Previously, he was artistic director of Montreal's Theatre du Nouveau Monde for 15 years and has directed or acted in more than 100 both for stage and television.

MENTALLY RETARDED RECEIVE BOOST

The yellow telephone pillows seen on television promoting long distance telephone calls have become a significant boost for the Mentally Retarded Associations across Canada. The boost came in the form of an overwhelming demand for the pillows.

Initially the pillows are to be produced in Ottawa and sold through local associations. Once the project is fully underway, the national body hopes to have various provincial associations produce and market their own yellow telephone pillows.

All the profits generated by the sale of the pillows go to the Mentally Retarded and they may be purchased for $8.29 each. Albertans may order them by filling out order forms available in AGT Public Offices throughout the province or by writing to - Advance Industries, A Division of the Calgary Association for the Mentally Retarded, 77 St. and Bowness Rd. N.W., Calgary, Alberta.

Tips by Carol Drake Food Consultant

Bread keeps its freshness longer at room temperature but refrigeration does protect it against mold in very humid weather. To enjoy home-baked bread without starting from scratch, try some of the frozen loaves of bread dough. These loaves can also be reshaped into rolls and many other treats.

For thickening sauces or gravies: one tablespoon arrowroot or one tablespoon cornstarch is equal to two tablespoons of flour.

To conserve electricity, try to reduce the number of times your refrigerator door is opened. Kids have a way of holding the door open while they decide on a snack. Enlist their cooperation by explaining the importance of conserving!

In buying lemons, choose the heavier ones because they are more juicy. Lemons produce more juice if warmed slightly in hot water before squeezing.

Quick dessert idea: spoon chilled Lalani pineapple chunks into dessert dishes and top with sour cream. Sprinkle with nutmeg, cinnamon or coconut.

Large teacher increase for disabled National conference in Edmonton

Preliminary figures reveal that there has been a dramatic increase in the number of approved teaching positions for the special education of children with learning disabilities. Dr. E. J. M. Church, director of Special Education Services Alberta Education said that "In 1972-73, 124 teaching positions were approved in the area of learning disabilities. This provided special educational services to 1,397 pupils. In 1973-74, the indications are that 249 teachers will be approved to teach 3,426 children."

This means an increase of 100 per cent in the number of teaching positions approved and a jump of 145 per cent in the number of children served. The most spectacular increase has been in rural divisions and counties where the number of teaching positions almost quadrupled from 20 in 1972 to 75 in 1973. In one year, the number of children served rose from 246 to 1,395.

The Special Education Services branch were concerned that some pupils formerly categorized as educable mentally handicapped would be reclassified as learning disabled. "This, however, does not seem to have happened," noted Dr. Church, "as the number of educable mentally handicapped teaching positions has increased from 234 to 254 and the number of educable mentally handicapped pupils from 2,638 to 2,844."

Dr. Church feels that there is now real evidence to indicate that children suffering from learning disabilities are getting the kind of instruction that will help them enter the mainstream of Alberta education.

The first national conference of provincial recreation ministers scheduled to be held in Edmonton May 28 and 29 is expected to bring delegates from all 10 provinces and the northern territories. Culture, Youth and Recreation Minister, Horst A. Schmid, said it is hoped the ministers, through discussions of present and future recreation policies, can arrive at a co-ordinated national approach to the development of leisure-time activities. The ministers will discuss the roles of the three levels of government with regard to the allocation of money, manpower, research, and physical resources in the recreation field. An overview of recreation in Canada at the present time will also be given. The conference will close with discussion of action required to arrive at national recreation policies.

CWL convention emphasizes doing

The 18th annual convention of the St. Paul Diocese Catholic Womens' League of Canada was held at Atmore, Alberta, in April. Twenty councils were represented and the Parish-Council reporting was 100 per cent. "Be Doers of the Word" was the theme of the convention. Father Louis Viel of Morinville, guest speaker, explained it very clearly in comparing the theme with the Gospel of St. John. In being doers of the word we must realize that the Word of God is revealing, that we must know the Word of God, we must receive it and we must serve. The message - to recognize our purpose in life and how to go about living it in harmony with God's plan.

Monsignor Fernand Croteau, Bonnyville, represented His Excellency Bishop Raymond Roy of St. Paul who was unable to come. Monsignor suggested that we listen to the Word and be doers of the Word. "Let's make a Holy Year resolution - nurture within ourselves the need of prayer and look for God in everyone."

Special guest was Mrs. J. T. Carley, provincial CWL president. Her message was "how to build Peace." Quote "CWL has plenty of suggestions for action toward making peace. Spend your God-given talents to do good. The sounds of silence are sounds that should be listened to most. Lord make me, make us a channel of Your Peace!"

Mr. G. Putnam of Atmore warmly welcomed the CWL on behalf of the Atmore community. He related "Be Doers of the Word" to the acts of faith hope and charity. The convenors reports disclosed an active 1973-74 year. Of special note was the interest one council in the needs of the handicapped and the shut-ins.

A buzz session was held. Three questions were discussed and solutions submitted. 1. What is necessary for a spiritual and moral renewal so that families may spread the Good Word of the Gospel? (Attitude, knowledge acceptance). 2. Are we concerned with the teaching of the Church and how is it received? (Teaching basically the same, habitual, some confusion, searching for deeper understanding, good example and communication). 3. Are we aware of the Council Decrees? (Emphasis on the study of the Encyclicals)

A very good skit on the two faces of marriage was presented by the Atmore Council. "Truly an eye-opener," as one member described it.

The new St. Paul diocese executive council is: President, Mona MacGregor, Athabasca; 1st vice-pres, Katie Karpetz, Atmore; 2nd vice-pres, Barbara Page, Pickardville; 3rd vice-pres, Jeannette Geiger, Tawatinaw.

A concelebrated mass was offered in the lovely little R.C. Church of Atmore, partly in memory of Marlene Sabourin of Vimy.

During the closing banquet Monsignor Rooney, staunch supporter of CWL, presented the award-winning Monsignor Rooney Trophy to the most deserving council of the year, Pickardville. Congratulations were extended to the new diocesan CWL president, Mona MacGregor and sincere thanks were offered to Doreen Lecky, past-president, rightly termed a "Star" for her dedicated performance in office.

Thanks to the hard work and careful planning and warm hospitality of the Atmore Council and of the whole Atmore Community, the convention was truly a success.

'Off Site' fee objections heard at M.D. meeting

Strong opposition to an imposed $500 'off site' fee prompted a delegation of almost fifty municipal ratepayers, realtors, and developers to confront the Sturgeon Municipal Council for more than an hour at the meeting held on Thursday, May 16. The delegation strongly criticized council for applying the charge which has been in effect since last October and urged for its abolishment.

Mr. Keith Everitt acted as spokesman for the group and opened their comments by stating, "We are here to oppose policy, what we consider to be a major policy change." Mr. Everitt went on to present a brief on behalf of the Morin family of Gibbons, one of the seven statements heard by council during the session. Other persons heard from were: Mrs. Chellan, Mr. E. J. Derube, Mr. Albert Lesburg, Mr. Ron Cresswell, Mr. Bidette representing Tri-Star Developments, and Mr. Jim Zahar. Each communicated their individual arguments against the 'off site' charge.

The 'off site' fee is levied per separate parcel of land to cover such administrative costs as: "committee inspection prior to presentation to council, inspection by public works after subdivision is complete and the developer has put in roads and lot entrances, office administrative costs which include preparation and signing of agreements." Approximately $100 of the total fee is allocated for these purposes.

The remaining $400 covers 'other municipal costs which include road maintenance after construction, provision of disposal grounds, fire protection costs, education costs (for supplementary registration), social assistance costs, recreation costs, and other incidental costs.'

The breakdown of the 'off site' fee was later provided to the Gazette by a spokesman for the municipality.

Contained in the brief presented on behalf of the Morin family was a summary of the circumstances surrounding the application for separate title, the receipt of a parcel of land containing the home site. The brief asked what additional services would be provided from the fee. The other briefs substantially contained the same question and all urged council to give greater consideration to those pieces of property which did not require the fee.

Mrs. Chellan presented her statement in which was outlined the financial reasons for the development of the property she owns. "I feel that the fee is entirely unjustified," she stated, "just because I create two more parcels with my subdivision which would mean two more families in our area. . . . I do see this means you will upgrade our roads?" Mrs. Chellan went on to criticize the council for lack of communication and consideration in matters affecting the ratepayers of the area.

Mr. Bidette of Tri-Star Developments stated that the fee would cause the cost of the houses which his company constructs to increase in price from $2,000 to $3,500. Both he and Mr. Presswell assured council that they were prepared to take the matter to court.

Mr. Jim Zahar lambasted the council through much of his statement and openly criticized members for incompetence. He also attacked council for not justifying their general activity and so doing, forcing the ratepayers to 'police our council.'

Following the conclusion of the presentation of statements, Mr. Flynn voiced his appreciation that construction information had been forthcoming for the most part. Mr. Kluthe commended Mr. Bidette for his suggestion that a committee be struck consisting of council members and ratepayers. Time constraints hindered pursuing the subject in great depth but the suggestion for a committee study was viewed by all present as a satisfactory measure toward solution of the issue. Members of the delegation were in favor of utmost expediency in handling the matter.

Mr. Kluthe, speaking for the council, stated, "Some of the developers here may be in the position to tell me where the municipality might acquire the necessary funds to provide what people would consider adequate services. With the numbers of applications that are coming to this municipality, some as high as 1500 parcels in one month, I in my limited capacity am not aware of where the financing is to come from." He suggested that development be curtailed somewhat.

Mr. Everitt answered Mr. Kluthe by stating that such a measure would increase the span of time before the parcels of land would be occupied which would reduce the municipal income and increase the burden on the citizens.

24" pipeline proposed for Morinville

Mayor Art Stapleton of Morinville appeared before the Sturgeon Municipal Council on Thursday, May 16, to discuss a proposal for the construction of a 24" sewer pipeline which would increase the capacity of the present system in that area.

The proposed plan involves an outfall pipeline running to the town of St. Albert, intercepting with the outfall line to be constructed to serve that community's needs. Because the pipeline will pass through the municipality, the procedure of seeking approval from the M.D. of Sturgeon is necessary.

A development agreement will have to be signed with the M.D. and a similar agreement will be signed with the Town of St. Albert.

The project will involve an 11 mile course at an estimated cost of $1,050,000/mile. It is hoped that tenders can be called within 90 days. If the weather and contractors comply, the project can be expected to be on stream by October of 1975.

Correspondence between Morinville and the Department of the Environment indicates that financial assistance will be extended in the form of debenture payments. Payments will be made for the portion between $150 and $750 per capita debt. The payments for the portion under $150 per capita and over $750 per capita will be the responsibility of the Town.

Before approvals are granted for the extensions to the existing system, the Standards and Approvals division of the Department of the Environment must have the following:

1. Agreement with St. Albert for the disposal of Morinville sewage.
2. Easement agreement for the outfall right-of-way.
3. Preliminary approval from other government agencies, i.e. Dept. of Highways and Transportation, Edmonton Regional Planning Commission, M.D. of Sturgeon, etc.
4. Application for a permit to construct the sewage pipeline.

Upon issuance of the Permit to Construct, consideration will be given to extending services to the Town. The proposed sewage line is anticipated to be able to accommodate a population of 10,000 plus.

The Editor:

At a recent meeting attended in the Municipal Council of Sturgeon Chambers in Morinville, Mr. Flynn on being questioned as to why minutes of council meetings had not been appearing in the Gazette, answered by saying that council were thinking of discontinuing blanket subscription to a paper anyway and ratepayers could pick and subscribe for their own.

If you are not in favor of this, get on the phone and make your wishes known to the councillor representing your area and SOON, Council of Sturgeon has a reputation for passing some of its bylaws very quickly and with a minimum of publicity, regardless of the wishes of those they are supposed to be serving.

Calahoo and District News

By Liz McLeod

If its any consolation, those entomologists that were probing that rock pile in March, have found three species of mosquitoes and hopefully now they will be able to come up with some control.

By all the wonderful songs of the birds and the frogs croaking it would appear spring is here, if only the weather will co-operate so the anxious farmers can get with it. Now with the leaves bursting out on the trees and of course the lovely dandelions in bloom, one turns to gardening. It's so nice to see the tulips in bloom when driving in the towns or city. Perhaps we best become united in prayer for ideal weather for spring planting.

Several in Calahoo enjoyed a 16 day bus tour as far as Mexico. Las Vegas, Disneyland, the Redwood Forests making a round tour of many scenic places.

Vance and Cecile Berry, John and Dina Groppie, Mrs.

Helen Radjo, Mrs. Toni Christen, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bergstretzer, Mrs. Ed Harta Bergstretzer and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Campese who were former Calahoo residents and now living in Edmonton certainly enjoyed one another's company and the glorious tour.

Josslyn and Stephanie Sheffield, in company with their daughter Harriet and her husband Raymond Clark spent a glorious time motoring to Vancouver and because the Sheffields weren't ready to come just when the Clark's were they lingered on another day and then flew back.

Otto and Audrey Steinkamp enjoyed the visit of Audrey's aunt from 100 Mile House in British Columbia, Mrs. Ann Schulling. She drove her little car all by herself and also had opportunity to see the children, Mark who starts school this year and the twins, Cindy and Carol.

Gosh Hawaii must be a great place to holiday. When Roderich and Alice Calahoo's daughter Carol returned, her grandparents the Fred Labonte's were on hand to listen to all the happy moments spent while there.

Vic and Betty Albrecht were very pleased to have their daughter Elaine and her hubby, Hal Ohlmann come home from Alcou, Quebec for a three weeks vacation.

While here Elaine's sister Virginia and Eddy McCann had a family get-together and before they left for the east their parents entertained them royally. A great send off especially when they are so far away and only get home when on holidays.

Pete McLeod and his uncle Alfred Rhomb from Telfordville district, of Leduc decided not to wait for spring but go to Vancouver hoping for better weather and greener pastures and to visit with Aunt Ruth Hodgins and Charlie Dunstall's as well as some of Pete's school friends now living out there.

Ferdinand and Elsa Lischewski spent their wedding anniversary visiting at their neighbors, the McLeods and to make it even more pleasant another neighbor, Mrs. Emelia Schmermund dropped by.

Richard and Florence Mitchell of Calahoo enjoyed their 25th wedding anniversary a while back by having a family dinner in Calahoo and then on to Edmonton for more entertainment. Congratulations folks!

Its sure nice to hear Mrs. Mary Calahoo (Clara Loyner's sister) is out of hospital and feeling better. Mary is presently visiting at Clara's and Richard and Florence Mitchell's.

Werner and Toni Christen were also congratulated on their wedding anniversary recently, as were the Marcel Kerekhol's.

Randy and Denise Heap (nee Gallagher) are proud of their little daughter Shauna Marie, a sister for Carmen Rita.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Labonte are very proud great grandparents and Gordon and Louise Gallagher of St. Albert are the proud grandparents.

There were two weddings of interest to attend this May for the Peter McLeods. On the 4th, brother Felix's wife's daughter, Joanne Hayes was united in holy bonds of matrimony to Bob Tainsh of Fox Creek in a double ring ceremony at Barrhead United Church with the reception and dance at Mystery Lake Hall.

Then on the 18th a friend's daughter, Gladys Preece of R.R. 2 Winterburn pledged her vows and exchanged rings with William Sapridin of same address with reception and dance being held in Clymont Community Hall. This was old home week for your correspondent since I was born and raised in Clymont.

Goldenagers meet in Calahoo

By Liz McLeod

Finally the water subsided and the weather was a bit more co-operative so that after a six week lapse the senior citizens of Calahoo were able to meet in the Gazebo on May 8 at 8 p.m. with 23 making it out and enjoying themselves.

There's always merriement and laughter during card games some play bridge and some whist, along with a neighborly chat. Everyone join in for 10 or so hands of bingo before its time for lunch.

President Dina Groppie called attention to the fact that anyone wishing to take the proposed northern tour this summer should fill out and send in the brochure sent to them earlier and state their intentions as to which one they prefer if they plan on going.

Because Wednesday evening isn't convenient for many members, take a show of hands on Thursday evening instead.

Thursday evening was voted in so in future meetings will be the second and fourth Thursday of each month.

A candlelit birthday cake was set before Werner Christen while all sang happy birthday to him after which he blew all the candles out at once.

Lunch and pleasant visiting ended this happy evening.

Management of soil organic matter

Re-issued by W. O. Klatt, District Agriculturist

The organic matter of a soil is the key to soil fertility and it is a natural resource that must be maintained. All living things depend on soil, thus its fertility level and consequent productivity are of prime importance. As a result, soil organic matter must be managed with great care or lowering of fertility and loss of productivity will result.

Soil organic matter is derived from plant and animal residues and it is constantly being used up and replenished. Studies on the cyclical transformation of organic matter in soil yields important information on the maintenance of this resource. At the Lethbridge Research Station, particular attention is being paid to the changes that occur in organic matter in cultivated soils.

Native, or original, organic matter is more stable in some soils than in others. The stability depends on many factors that exert their effects both individually and collectively, and to varying degrees. Moisture and temperature relationships within the soil and in the air above the soil are, for example, important factors responsible for these differences in stability. Because stability of organic matter varies from one soil to another, management should be tailored to each soil individually for maximum effect.

Although the presence of organic matter in soil is essential for proper plant growth, only small amounts are needed. It is the maintenance of this small amount that is critical. Each soil has its own minimum level of organic matter and again this level will vary from one site to another. Any drop of the organic matter content beyond the critical level will reduce yields. Therefore, the organic matter in some soils needs to be replenished much sooner than in other soils. In cultivated soils, organic matter is replenished when roots and crop residues decompose.

When wind erosion is severe, the surface horizon with its organic matter is lost and replacement is difficult.

For soils with unstable organic matter, the problems of organic matter management are thus accentuated. Good management will include both maintaining the level of organic matter and preventing loss of surface soil.

The above information was released from the Lethbridge Research Station.

Water intake and urinary calculi in range calves

Re-issued by W. O. Klatt's office.

Urinary calculi, or stones, cause the death of large numbers of range calves each year by blocking the urethra and preventing the flow of urine. At the Lethbridge Station, we have found that total water intake regulates the formation of urinary calculi. When less than 3.5 pounds of water are consumed with each pound of grass dry matter, conditions in the urinary tract favor calculus formation. Because calves are often present at weaning, we knew that this condition must have occurred while the calves were still suckling their dams. But we did not know exactly when the critical ratio between water and grass dry matter was reached.

To obtain information to guide us in recommending preventive measures, we performed an experiment at the Manyberries Substation in which water intake of calves on range was measured several times between birth and weaning. The range was typical shortgrass prairie with needle and thread grass and blue grama grass predominant. Water intake as measured included that obtained by the calves in milk and in the grass eaten as well as the free water they drank. The amount contributed by milk was known from earlier experiments.

We found that water intake increased from 11 pounds per day at one week of age to 33 pounds per day just before weaning. Intake reached the critical level of 3.5 pounds per pound of grass dry matter about mid-September and afterwards declined even further. All water consumed was in the form of milk at one week of age to care for than the "silks" we've back when.

Crops, broadcloth, eyelet, lace - all fashion fabrics, all available in easy care polyester and blends.

Feminine colors and prints enhance the "definitely female" fashions. Nose-gays sprinkled on a neutral background are everywhere. Perhaps it's mauve flowers on a blue background, or camel and gold on cream, or forest green on mint.

Pastel colors are very big. Neutral bone white and oatmeal, pastel pink, blue, green are seen in every fashion.

Denims are even more popular this year. As a contrast to the 40's fashions, denim skirts, dresses, jackets, bathing suits, tote bags -- They are all made of denim or look like denim.

Embroidered designs appear on the yoke, down the front, on the hip pocket, on the side of pantlegs.

For fun and fashion inexpensively, sew your own! Or look in the back of your closet and let your imagination run wild. Can you add embroidery, shorten the sleeves, wear the garment in a different way?

but water from other sources accounted for 10 per cent of the total at six weeks, 50 per cent at 10 weeks, and 75 per cent at 23 weeks. Most of the water consumed in excess of that from milk will have been free water because the grass contained very little moisture.

These experiments show that calculus formation could have begun in the calves in mid-September, six weeks before they are usually weaned. Removal of calves from native range at this time would reduce or eliminate calculus formation. But for those calves that must remain on range, calculus formation could be reduced by increasing their water intake. Experiments now underway are designed to test the effects of increasing the intake of salt on water intake and calculus formation in range calves. For this purpose, range supplements are being provided that contain up to 20 per cent salt.

Released from the Lethbridge Research Station.

Marcoux - Labonte Wedding

Saturday, April 27, St. John the Baptist Roman Catholic Church in Morinville was the scene of a lovely afternoon wedding when Anne Marie Labonte became the bride of Gerald Marcoux. Ann Marie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Labonte of Morinville, and Gerald is the son of Armand Marcoux of St. Paul. Rev. Father Primeau officiated at the triple ring ceremony.

The bride, a vision of loveliness as she walked down the aisle accompanied by her parents, chose a gown of nylon featuring Spanish lace trimming on the full skirt and bodice. Her full length veil, trimmed with matching lace, was held in place by a dainty silk headpiece, and she carried yellow roses.

Groomsmen were Oliva Marcoux (brother of the groom) and Marcel Gervais (brother-in-law of the bride).

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Labonte chose a fortrel dress in navy blue with matching plaid coat. White accessories and red roses in corsage completed her ensemble. The mother of the groom wore a long gown in powder blue crepe with silver accessories and pink roses on corsage.

A banquet for some 115 guests followed the wedding ceremony. Centering the head table was a beautiful wedding cake decorated with yellow roses. During the meal two nephews of the bride, Ricky Labonte and Robbie Labonte entertained the guests with banjo and guitar selections, while Mr. Marcel Marcoux sang a few songs which delighted everyone. Michel Labonte proposed the toast to the bride, and Rene Chevalier proposed a toast to the groom. Marcel Marcoux welcomed Ann Marie into their family while Laurier Labonte (brother of the bride and master of ceremonies) welcomed Gerald into the Labonte family. Ann Marie and Gerald ably thanked everyone for attending, and making the day such a wonderful one to remember.

A crowd of some 350 people gathered after the banquet at a special reception. Anne Marie's going-away outfit was a navy blue dress with white accessories and yellow corsage.

Out of province guests were Mr. and Mrs. Michel Labonte and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Holterhus.

The newlyweds are making their home in Sherwood Park where they have purchased a new home.

Margolus - Crozier Wedding

Pamela Mae Crozier, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Crozier and David Benjamin Margolus, second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe Margolus were united in marriage by Justice S. Lieberman on May 8, 1974. The marriage was performed at the home of the bride's parents in a candlelight ceremony in front of the fireplace with bouquets of yellow roses, mums and gladiolus complementing the yellow candles.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was lovely in her full length gown of beige polyester crepe with lace bodice. She carried long stemmed yellow roses. The bride was attended by her younger sister Irene and the groom by his older brother, Michael. Following the ceremony a small family recep-

Don't put all your eggs in one basket! FARM CROP

Every farmer knows that relying too heavily on one crop can lead to cash income problems. He has learned not to Put All His Eggs In One Basket.

Rapeseed has been, and still is, the stabilizing crop that provides ready cash.

Rapeseed growers have consistently, for fifteen years, signed Western Canadian Seed Processors' Grower Contracts and assured themselves of a guaranteed market.

This year is no exception . . . Rapeseed markets are still strong. Rapeseed provides the diversity. Rapeseed is great for rotations and Rapeseed can be seeded late and harvested early.

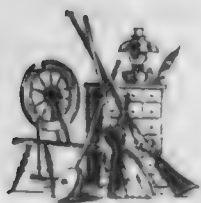

A Western Canadian Seed Processors' Grower Contract offers cash advances, daily pricing when your crop is in the bin, pooling on-the-farm storage payments, and, this year, freight assistance and/or local delivery points.

Sign a Western Canadian Seed Processors' Contract today. Thousands of Alberta farmers do every year.

Canada's contribution an island park in Spokane

The Canadian Government is spending about $500,000 to turn the re-named 'Canada Island' into a park which will be turned over to the city of Spokane when Expo '74 is over. Canada is one of 11 nations represented at the Fair.

The western provinces of Alberta and British Columbia are represented separately, and together with the national contribution, they occupy the entire island in the Spokane River rapids. Visitors to the island will have some of the most spectacular views of the rapids available as they cross over the water by either of two newly built foot bridges. One bridge becomes partially engulfed in a misty spray from the rapids when the river is high.

Alberta's Exhibit consists mainly of an open-air amphitheatre with seating for about 200 persons, with a small indoor theatre for slide presentations seating about 40. Almost continuous entertainment throughout the fair is expected in the amphitheatre.

British Columbia is building a pavilion that will stress Expo '74's theme, "Celebrating Tomorrow's Fresh, New Environment," in a series of educational exhibits that will go on tour in the province after the fair.

August 28 through September 2 has been designated Canada Week at the Fair. Entertainers from all over Canada will take part in ceremonies centering on Canada Island.

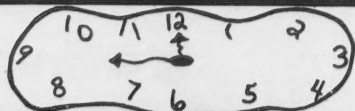

SPOKANE -- Canada Island, the smaller of the two islands that form the centre of the site of the Expo '74 World's Fair here, ready for the thousands of visitors expected opening day -- May 4th. The Canadian national government is landscaping the island and when the fair ends Nov. 3rd, it will turn it over to the City of Spokane as part of a park. In the centre of the island is the outdoor theatre built by the Province of Alberta. At the upper left is the pavilion built by the Province of British Columbia.

It has become essential to observe advertising deadlines, and Gazette advertisers are requested to take note that no display advertising can be accepted after 9 p.m. MONDAY for publication in the current week. Classified advertising will be accepted until 4 p.m. TUESDAY.

New equipment has been installed to take the paper to the camera-ready stage in order to improve reproduction and to provide for earlier distribution. The addition of this process makes it imperative that a strict deadline be maintained, and the co-operation of advertisers is requested.

DISPLAY ADVERTISING DEADLINE IS NOW MONDAY AT 9:00 P.M.
